

Short-Term Accommodation in

WROCŁAW

A practical guide

20
25

Wrocław offers a variety of short-term accommodation options to suit different needs and budgets. From centrally located hotels to cozy Airbnb apartments, here's a practical overview to help you choose the right place to stay.

General overview

Most accommodations are located in or near the Old Town (Rynek), providing easy access to sightseeing, dining, and public transport. Booking platforms include:

Hotels' own websites

Often offer
discounts for direct bookings.

Airbnb

Apartments and rooms directly from locals.

Booking.com

Hotels, apartments,
and guesthouses.

Accommodation recommendations

Airbnb & Apartments

Studio Apartment in Old Town

€80–110 per night

- 👍 Full kitchen, cozy, great location
- 👎 Can be small for 2+ guests

Modern Flat near Rynek

€80–110 per night

- 👍 Stylish, fast Wi-Fi, good views
- 👎 Check-in may be self service

Apartment with Balcony (Krzyki)

€80–110 per night

- 👍 Quiet, cheaper, good tram access
- 👎 15–20 min to city center

Hotels

PURO Hotel Wrocław

€70–100 per night

Old Town

Popular, can be noisy

Stylish, central,
great café

AC Hotel by Marriott

€80–110 per night

Near Main Station

Reliable, modern, quiet

Slightly farther from
Old Town

The Bridge Hotel

€100–130 per night

Cathedral Island

Riverside, peaceful

Premium pricing

Campanile Wrocław

€60–80 per night

City Center

Budget-friendly, central

Basic amenities

Note: Prices are based on average rates for April 2025.

Location: Prefer “Stare Miasto,” “Śródmieście,” or “Krzyki” districts.

Early Booking: Prices increase during holidays and festivals.

Reviews Matter: Prioritize listings with high ratings and detailed feedback.

Languages: Most hosts speak English or use translation apps.

Final Suggestion

For maximum convenience and style, consider PURO, The Bridge Hotel or Art Hotel. For longer stays with a homely feel, a well-rated Airbnb studio in the city center is deal. Budget travelers might opt for Campanile Wrocław or similar options.